Docket No. FA1000 US NA

Amendments to the Drawings:

The attached sheet of drawings includes new Figure 1. Figure 1 has been added in response to the Examiner's assertion that the application admits of illustration by a drawing to facilitate understanding of the invention.

Attachment: New Sheet

REMARKS/ARGUMENTS

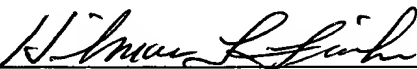

In the June 13, 2005, Final Office Action, claims 1-15 were allowed. The application was objected to for having a defective declaration and for admitting of illustration by a drawing to facilitate understanding of the invention. Applicants have attached new declarations that should overcome the Examiner's objections. Applicants have also attached a new drawing that should adequately facilitate understanding of the invention. Specifically, the new drawing is a flow chart that sets forth the basic steps of the invention (see claim 1 for support). No new matter was added.

Applicants have also amended the specification to include the section "Brief Description of the Drawing." No new matter was added.
